

T

he Christian journey is never one we embark on alone. We step into a family of faith that extends around the world and across the centuries, and while the steps we take and the progress we make may be unique to us, we are surrounded by the wisdom and experience of others who have gone before us or are travelling alongside us. Signs and Seasons introduces us to some of the amazing resources that are at our disposal. It blends ancient Christian insights and contemporary understanding to create the ideal 'spiritual travel kit'.

It draws on the shape of the Christian year with its times of celebration and quiet reflection, the Bible, art, poetry and prayer, stories and humour to lay the foundation for a mature, thinking faith that is unafraid to engage with life's most difficult questions and challenges.

You can share stories of your own journey, compare experiences, post prayers or talk with the author on an accompanying website, www.signsandseasons.co.uk
